Warm, and the hot sun beating down on the unprotected camp already has begun to raise the stench that accompanies a large gathering of men without adequate sanitary arrangements. The men are impatient of the delay and are freting to be on the move.

Whyth he stop has been made no one can tell, Browne and Coxey simply saying there is plenty of time to reach Rockville on Saturday. It has been decided to accept the offer of H. P. Waggeman for a camp at Woodley Park, both Browne and Coxey being well pleased with the arrangement.

Most of the Commonwealers are resting in camp, only a few of them appearing in town. So far they have heeded the temperance lecture that Browne inserted in his general order this morning. It said in part:

"Refrain from begging, either on the street or from private houses. Refrain from filling up on bad whiskey. A little godw hiskey taken in moderation won't hurt you, but any one of you drinking immoderately may consider himself discharged from the Commonweal."

When he had finished reading the order to some of thee correspondents, Browne said: "It took a good deal of moral courage to say that, but I believe I am right, and I will handle any men on that basis."

Now that the Coxeyite Industrial armies are coming nearer and nearer, Superintendent of Police Byrnes is beginning to express himself about them. He does not, he says, think as much of them as he does about them.

"They are a menace to the well-being of the whole country," he said, "and a law ought to be speedily enacted making it a crime for any such great aggregations or mobs to concentrate in any one city. In fact, there should be a law prohibiting them from marching through the country at all.

"Such a movement is entirely un-American, and I daresay that not more than 2 per cent, of the people engaged in it are natives of the soil. They are probably nearly all foreigners or tramps, and too lazy to work."

MORE MINERS QUIT WORK.

Strikers Say Pennsylvania System May Be Embarrassed.

(By Associated Press.) PITTSBURG, April 25.-Delegates representing 3,000 miners, who have not een connected with the National Miners' Union, met at Leechburg yesterday and declared in favor of a strike. This will take out practically all the Pennsylvania Railroad miners along the Kiskiminitas River. The strikers claim that this new move will tie up the West Pennsylvania Railroad entirely within wo or three days, and that the situation may become embarrassing for the whole Pennsylvania system east.

The operators say they have coal enough to keep them supplied as long as the strike may last. Elsewhere in this district the situation remains unchanged. The coke region is coming into line with the strikers, and the men claim that the whole region will be out to-day.

Their men will go to work at the advance to-day. This victory will lead to renewed energy for bringing out the other men who refused to strike.

An Exciting Election.

WEST NEW BRIGHTON, S. I., April 24.— The most exciting election that was ever held for School Trustee of the West New Brighton Public School was held last night. Thomas R. Public School was held last night. Thomas H Parrell and George A. N. Wood were candidates to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daniel Campbell. There were 411 voice cast, of which Mr. Wood received a majority of sixty-seven. The present indications point to a close election of county official in the Fail.

Neither Mrs. Le Moult nor her maid was hurt. They climbed out of the wrecked buggy and Policeman McCullarh ran up and led the horse to the curb.

Mrs. Le Moult told the maid to run to Daiy's stable and have somebody come after the rig. Then she cried very hard and began to pet the brown horse. She rubbed his nose and put her face very close to the animal's, and said assuringly: "You know you love me, don't policeman McCullarh, who heard it.
